A Final Message from our Curate

Good foundations

As the end of 2021 draws near, so does my time in Tandrige. As a curate (trainee vicar) I was due to be here for three to four years and have managed four and a half! We've loved living in the area and being part of the Tandrige and Oxted communities. We have appreciated the warm and friendly welcome and shared life we have received from so many people in Tandrige. Our love of the countryside has led us to a rural village in North Hampshire: I have been appointed Rector of a Benefice of four rural parishes in the Diocese of Winchester.

As I think about our time here, I remember with fondness the annual traditions in Tandrige: the Harvest Suppers, school services, carol singing around the village, talent shows, the Fete, leaf clearing in the churchyard and all the events and services in St Peter's Church. They (and more) are part of our shared life and help to bind our community together, with shared memories and a sense of 'this is what we do in Tandrige'.

As the village and church goes on without me, I'm sure they will evolve and develop in ways unknown, but these will grow from the good foundations of all that has happened in the past. We build on the legacy of others and make our own contributions to the life and sustainability of the church and village for the future.

For me, Jesus Christ is the firm foundation on which we can grow and flourish. He has shown us the Way and guides us along it. By loving God and loving our neighbour we do what we can, perhaps in small but significant ways, to bring faith and hope and love to others. I hope I've helped a little and encourage you all to continue to do your part in helping St Peter's Church and the village of Tandrige to grow and flourish for many years to come.

There will be village events on every day

But for now

THE QUEEN'S GREEN CANOPY PROJECT

As part of these celebrations Tandridge Village is joining in the national 'Queen's Green Canopy' event by creating a commemorative, celebration tree-lined walk, either side of the Greensand Way. The aim is to plant native trees which help wildlife and create a living legacy.

We have 70 trees to plant. If you or your family would like to be part of this project, you can sponsor a tree that will be mapped in your name. The trees will be rowan, silver birch, wild cherry, common oak, willow, hawthorn, Blackthorn or hazel. We're sorry but you can't select your tree type or its position, one will be allocated to you.

The cost for the tree, its planting in the spring, and four year's maintenance is £30. If you would like to take part, please register your interest with

Harvest Celebrations 2nd and 3rd October 2021

What a lovely evening in the Village Hall celebrating the harvest gathered in! Members of the village community and St Peter's church mingled for the first time in two years to chat about the old times and what the future might hold. Seventy people turned up and Clare Addison, Annette Schmidt and Vanessa Mesher really 'pulled out the stops' with a meal to remember. The rush to fill one's pudding bowls with as many puddings as you could find, sadly wasn't there this year in order to avoid any Covid1 breeches. Instead, puddings were provided by each table for their own table.

Many thanks to John and Sarah Nicholas for providing the churn and scythe.

The following morning in church we all celebrated God's wonderful work by singing 'We Plough the Fields and Scatter' and 'Now thank we all our God' finishing up with 'Shine Jesus Shine'. Gifts of food were prepared by a team led by Sue Mallinson and Fay Prater.

A small band of pilgrims ... walked the nearly 20 mile journey to Southwark Cathedral on 23rd October. We left at 6am, and walked over the Downs to Woldingham, then proceeded mainly on pavements all the way to the edge of the Thames! We saw a beautiful sunrise from The Ridge; it was also good to pause there to enjoy it. We met Nigel in South Croydon, who travelled with us for a couple of miles and then we enjoyed coffee and croissants in the shadow of St Peter's Church, South Croydon. Great conversations were had, and we eventually joined other pilgrims close to cathedral. We joined a prayer vigil for COP26, which has inspired us to pray for that conference, and to be better informed. Now that the blisters have receded, we look back on the day with great joy! Rev Mark Anderson

On Sunday 7th November during the main services in the Oxted Team Ministry, it was announced that Mark will be moving to a new post:

"Thank you to everyone who prayed for Mark during the process of him applying for a new job. We are pleased to be able to tell you that he has been offered, and has accepted, the post of Rector of four rural parishes in North Hampshire, in the Diocese of Winchester in Hampshire. This appointment is subject to statutory checks and clearances before it can be made formal, and Mark will continue to be with us until mid December, with plans to start his new job in mid January. Please pray for Mark, Millie, Zoe and Evie in the coming weeks and months, as they prepare for this new adventure".

Mark

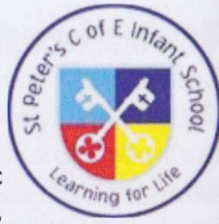

Forget about cats and dogs, it was raining elephants the day I came to see John's bench! However, I was delighted and I know he would have been, sitting there surveying his beloved village. I would like to thank everyone concerned in this lovely gesture.

I am very upset that I can't come to the Christmas Concert this year, it seems a great idea. I had already booked the big show at Thursford (you should all see this, it's marvellous). I wish you all a very happy healthy Christmas and a much better New Year.

St Peter's C of E Infant School - November 2021

Welcome to the second half of our autumn term. We can't believe how quickly the beginning of the new academic year has passed already. The children all settled into school, like ducks to water – although, that could be quite literal with the amount of rain we have experienced over the past weeks!

The reception children have been amazing, as they have had to set themselves up in temporary accommodation while the school continues to dry out from the summer flooding, and the latest flood that happened at the end of October. They have embraced school life and thoroughly enjoy being a part of our wonderful school. They have made the classroom their own and have created some lovely memories already, which we hope will set them up with an enthusiasm and love of learning that continues through their school lives and beyond.

I think one of the most joyful things about the term to date, is seeing all the children playing together as a school and delighting in making new friendships with others from different year groups. For most of our children this has been a totally new experience, which highlights the new challenges children face, without realising that this used to be the norm. They can now take part in school lunchtimes together (which can be seriously fun, but quite a noisy affair), after school activities and have our special daily Collective Worship together. It is wonderful!

"You can find magic wherever you look. Sit back and relax all you need is a book!"

We are equally excited that as we move into the next super busy half term, these exciting experiences will only continue to get even better. We have lots of brilliant things to look forward to including our Book Week, the lead up to Advent with a special Pause Day and then ultimately the Christmas bonanza of plays and parties, resulting in our first Christmas service at St Peter's Church in two years. We really hope this will be a magical experience for all.

We would like to express our appreciation and thanks for the continued support and warmth of the Tandridge community and look forward to the future when we can share some of our memories as the community opens up even further.

With best wishes, and dare I say (albeit it a little early), have a truly wonderful and joyful Christmas, Lenia Greenaway and the whole of St Peter's School team.

Remembrance Sunday 2021

About 18 members of the congregation gathered at the memorial for the two-minute silence at 11 o'clock on 14th November 2021.

Revd David Weightman, Assistant Priest, led the ceremony and read the exhortation. Wreaths of poppies were laid by the Chair of Tandridge Parish Council, Ivor Stamp, the Wardens of St Peter's Church, and a relative of one of the Fallen. We were very fortunate to have a bugler this year by kind arrangement of our organist Nigel Bates. The service continued in the church.

How Father Christmas got where he is today

One person you are bound to run into this Christmas season is Father Christmas. These days he seems to frequent shopping malls and garden centres. If he looks tired, just remember that he has been around a long time and gone through a lot of transformations.

Father Christmas wasn't always the red-suited, white-bearded star of the retail trade that he is today. He began life as Nicholas, born way back about AD260 in Patara, an important port on the southern coast of what is now Turkey. When his parents died and left him a fortune, Nicholas gave it away to the poor. He became a bishop of the nearby city of Myra, where he almost certainly suffered persecution and imprisonment at the hand of the Roman Emperor Diocletian.

Nicholas was a serious theologian: he was a participant at the First Council of Nicaea, which formulated the Creed which we still say today. He even, reportedly, slapped another bishop in a squabble over the exact nature of the Trinity.

Nicholas died in Myra about AD343, but the stories of his generosity and kindness were just beginning. One enduring tale tells of the three girls whom he rescued from certain prostitution by giving them gold for their dowries. When the father confronted him to thank him, Nicholas said he should thank God alone.

In the UK, Nicholas became the basis for Father Christmas, who emerged in Victorian times as a jolly-faced bearded character. Meanwhile, Dutch and German settlers had taken him to America with them as Sinter Klaas and Sankt Nicklas.

It was in America that Nicholas received his final two great breaks into real stardom. The first was when the Rev Clement C Moore, a New York Episcopal minister, turned from his life-work of writing a Hebrew/English lexicon, to write a fun poem for his children one Christmas. His 'The Visit of St Nicholas' is now universally known by its first line: 'T'was the Night Before Christmas'.

From Clement Moore we discovered that St Nicholas is round and pink-cheeked and white-bearded, and that he travels at night with sleigh, reindeer and a sack of toys on his back. It was Clement Moore who also revealed that St Nicholas enters houses down chimneys and fills children's stockings with toys and sweets. So how did we find out that Father Christmas wears red? That was the US Coca-Cola advertising campaign of 1931, who finally released the latest, up-to-date pictures of Father Christmas: wearing a bright red, fur-trimmed coat and a large belt.

These days, it is good that Father Christmas uses reindeer and doesn't have to pay for petrol. In order to get round all the children in the world on Christmas Eve, he will have to travel 221 million miles at an average speed of 1279 miles a second, 6,395 times the speed of sound. For all those of us who are already exhausted just rushing around getting ready for Christmas, that is a sobering thought.

How to Beat the Internet

Churches across the country are now squaring up to the same challenges – and opportunities – that many local shops and businesses have faced for years. It's all about the internet, and how it changes everything.

In the pre-Covid world, services were held in churches, and people went to them. Or not.

Throughout the lockdowns, most churches went online. Services were recorded or streamed from church buildings, kitchens, lounges or even, sheds. Some looked amazingly slick and professional. Most simply reflected the gifts and technical skills that the church could muster.

The move online brought other changes. Local people dropped in online to high-profile churches in the UK or overseas. Worshippers from around the world started 'attending' services across Britain.

People who had not attended church for years, or not at all, came across services online and were surprised at the variety on offer. They joined online services at different times to when they had been available live – and some watched while drinking coffee in bed.

Those who through disability had not been able to attend services could now join online alongside those who used to go, physically, each week.

But now, as post-Covid normality largely returns, many churches are facing tough decisions about their online offerings.

Do we go back to services only being held in church? Or do we continue with online offerings as well? Where technically possible, the answer must be yes – to keep going both online and in church.

Yet if churches want to encourage more people to come through our doors – and we do – we need to look at what's on offer. That means working on the warmth of welcome and the quality of worship and practical teaching.

More importantly, it's about bringing people into the presence of a God who loves them, affirms them and wants the best for them. It's about being part of a community of people who are seeking to follow God, who fail, but go on trying.

It's about church as a place where people can feel welcomed, at home, safe, and valued. A place where they are known and loved.

And, when all that is in place, it beats anything the internet can offer.
